Message from the Chief Executive Officer

This Member Protection Policy aims to ensure Football Federation Australia Limited's (FFA) core values, good reputation and positive behaviours and attitudes are maintained. It assists us in ensuring that every person involved in our sport is treated with respect and dignity, and is safe and protected from abuse. Through this Policy, we aim to ensure that everyone involved in Football is aware of his or her legal and ethical rights and responsibilities.

This Policy also provides the procedures that support our commitment to eliminating discrimination, harassment, child abuse and other forms of inappropriate behaviour from Football. As part of this commitment, FFA will take disciplinary action against any person or organisation bound by this Policy if they breach it.

FFA is committed to providing an environment safe for children, which is free from harassment and abuse for everyone, and promotes respectful and positive behaviour and values. This Policy provides codes of conduct and behaviour that form the basis of appropriate and ethical conduct by which everyone must abide.

This Policy is an essential part of our organisation's proactive and preventative approach to tackling inappropriate behaviour.

As Chief Executive Officer, I endorse this Policy and am personally committed to ensuring that everyone associated with FFA complies with it.

David Gallop
Chief Executive Officer

21 December 2012

PART A: Football Federation Australia Member Protection Policy

1. Purpose of Policy

This FFA Member Protection Policy (Policy) will work towards maintaining ethical and informed decision-making and responsible behaviours within our sport. It outlines our commitment to a person's right to be treated with respect and dignity and to be safe and protected from abuse. This Policy informs everyone involved in our sport at the national, state and local levels of his or her legal and ethical rights and responsibilities and the standards of behaviour that are required.

The Policy attachments outline the procedures that support our commitment to eliminating discrimination, harassment, child abuse and other forms of inappropriate behaviour from our sport. As part of this commitment FFA will take disciplinary action against any person or organisation bound by this Policy if they breach it.

The adoption of the Policy as an annexure to the FFA Statutes and as updated from time to time to reflect amendments to legislation and prevailing Australian Sports Commission standards has been approved by the Board of Directors of FFA. This current version of the Policy is effective from 21 December 2012 and will operate until replaced. Copies of the current Policy and its attachments can be obtained from FFA's website at www.footballaustralia.com.au.

2. Who this Policy Applies To

This Policy applies to FFA, Member Federations, District Associations, Competition Administrators, Clubs, Officials, Agents and Players. To the fullest extent possible, it also applies to parents and guardians of Players and to Spectators at Matches. This Policy will continue to apply to a person, even after they have stopped their association or employment with FFA, if disciplinary action against that person has commenced.

3. Responsibilities of the Organisation

FFA and the Member Federations of FFA (collectively, the Governing Bodies) must:

- 3.1 Adopt, implement and comply with this Policy;
- 3.2 In the case of the Member Federations make such amendments to their Constitutions, rules or policies necessary for this Policy to be enforceable;
- 3.3 Publish, distribute and promote this Policy and the consequences of breaches;
- 3.4 Promote and model appropriate standards of behaviour at all times;
- 3.5 Promptly deal with any breaches or complaints made under this Policy in a sensitive, fair, timely and confidential manner;
- 3.6 Apply this Policy consistently;
- 3.7 Recognise and enforce any penalty imposed under this Policy;
- 3.8 Ensure that a copy of this Policy is available or accessible to the persons and associations to whom this Policy applies;
- 3.9 Appoint appropriately trained people to the positions of Member Protection Information Officer (MPIO) and State Member Protection Information Officers, respectively, to receive and manage complaints and allegations;
- 3.10 Monitor and review this Policy on a regular basis.

4. Individual Responsibilities

Individuals bound by this Policy are responsible for:

- 4.1 Making themselves aware of the Policy and complying with its standards of behaviour;
- 4.2 Complying with applicable screening requirements and any state/territory Working with Children Checks;
- 4.3 Placing the safety and welfare of children above other considerations;
- 4.4 Being accountable for their behaviour;
- 4.5 Following the procedures outlined in this Policy if they wish to make a complaint or report a concern about possible child abuse, discrimination, harassment or other inappropriate behaviour; and
- 4.6 Complying with any decisions and/or disciplinary measures imposed under this Policy.

5. Position Statements

5.1 Child Protection

The Governing Bodies are committed to the safety and wellbeing of all children and young people accessing our service. We support the rights of the child and will act without hesitation to ensure that a child safe environment is maintained at all times. We also support the rights and wellbeing of our staff and volunteers and encourage their active participation in building and maintaining a secure environment for all participants.

The Governing Bodies acknowledge that our staff, members and volunteers provide a valuable contribution to the positive experiences of children involved in football. The Governing Bodies aim to continue this and to take measures to protect the safety and wellbeing of children participating in football by:

5.1.1: Identifying and Analysing Risk of Harm

The Governing Bodies will develop and implement risk management strategies, which includes a review of existing child protection practices, to determine how child-safe and child-friendly the organisation is and to determine what additional strategies are required to minimise and prevent risk of harm to children because of the action of an employee, volunteer or another child.

5.1.2: Developing Codes of Conduct for Adults and Children

The Governing Bodies will ensure that there is a FFA Working With Children Code of Conduct that specifies standards of conduct and care when dealing and interacting with children, particularly those in the care of one of the Governing Bodies.

The Working With Children Code of Conduct will set out professional boundaries, ethical behaviour and unacceptable behaviour and will address appropriate behaviour between children (see Part B of this Policy).

5.1.3: Choosing Suitable Employees and Volunteers

The Governing Bodies will ensure that all reasonable steps are taken to ensure that the most suitable and appropriate people to work with children (in prescribed positions) are engaged.

This may be achieved using a range of screening measures. Such measures will aim to minimise the likelihood of engaging (or retaining) people who are unsuitable to work with children.

The Governing Bodies will ensure that Working with Children checks/criminal history assessments are conducted for employees and volunteers working with children, where an assessment is required by law.

If a criminal history report is obtained as part of their screening process, the Governing Bodies will ensure that the criminal history information is dealt with in accordance with relevant state requirements (see Part C of this Policy).

5.1.4: Supporting, Training, Supervising and Enhancing Performance

The Governing Bodies will ensure that their volunteers and employees who work with children or children's records have ongoing supervision, support and training such that their performance is developed and enhanced to promote the establishment and maintenance of a child-safe environment.

5.1.5: Empowering and Promoting the Participation of Children in Decision-Making and Service Development

The Governing Bodies will promote the involvement and participation of children and young people in developing and maintaining child-safe environments.

5.1.6: Report and Respond Appropriately to Suspected Abuse and Neglect

The Governing Bodies will ensure that volunteers and employees are able to identify and respond to children at risk of harm.

The Governing Bodies will make all volunteers and employees aware of their responsibilities under respective state laws if they have a suspicion on reasonable grounds that a child has been or is being abused or neglected (see Part E of this Policy).

In addition to any legal obligation, if any person feels another person or organisation bound by this Policy is acting inappropriately towards a child or is breaching the Working With Children Code of Conduct they may make an internal complaint. Please refer to our complaints procedure outlined in Part D of this Policy. This will explain what to do about the behaviour and how the Governing Bodies will deal with the problem.

5.2 Taking Images of Children

Images of children cannot be used inappropriately or illegally. The Governing Bodies require that individuals and associations, wherever possible, obtain permission from a child's parent/guardian before taking an image of a child who is not their own and ensure that the parent knows how the image will be used. We also require the privacy of others to be respected and disallow the use of camera phones, videos and cameras inside changing areas, showers and toilets.

If any of the Governing Bodies use an image of a child it will avoid naming or identifying the child or it will, wherever possible, avoid using both the first name and surname. The Governing Bodies will not display personal information such as residential address, email address or telephone numbers without gaining consent from the parent/guardian. The Governing Bodies will not display information about hobbies, likes/dislikes, school, etc as this information can be used as grooming tools by pedophiles or other persons. The Governing Bodies will only use appropriate images of a child, relevant to our sport and ensure that the child is suitably clothed in a manner that promotes the sport, displays its successes, etc. Where possible the Governing Bodies will seek permission to use these images.

The Governing Bodies require Members, including Associations and Clubs, to do likewise.

5.3 Anti-Discrimination and Harassment

The Governing Bodies oppose all forms of harassment, discrimination and bullying. This includes treating or proposing to treat someone less favourably because of a particular characteristic; imposing or intending to impose an unreasonable requirement, condition or practice which has an unequal or disproportionate effect on people with a particular characteristic; or any behaviour that is offensive, abusive, belittling, intimidating or threatening – whether this is face-to-face, indirectly or via communication technologies such as mobile phone and computers. Some forms of harassment, discrimination and bullying, based on personal characteristics such as those listed in the Dictionary at section 9 of this Policy, are against the law.

If any person feels they are being harassed or discriminated against by another person or organisation bound by this Policy, please refer to the FFA Complaints Procedure outlined in Attachment D1 of this Policy. This will explain what to do about the behaviour and how the Governing Bodies will deal with the problem.

5.4 Sexual Relationships

The Governing Bodies take the position that sexual relationships between coaches and the adult athletes that they coach should be avoided as these relationships can have harmful effects on the individual athlete involved, on other athletes and coaches, and on football's public image. Such relationships may be intentionally or unintentionally exploitative due to a disparity between coaches and athletes in terms of authority, power, maturity, status, influence and dependence.

Should a sexual relationship exist between an athlete and coach, the relevant Governing Body will consider whether any action is necessary. Factors that may be relevant in this consideration are the age and maturity of the athlete relative to the coach, the financial or emotional dependence of the athlete on the coach, and the likelihood of the relationship having any adverse impact on the athlete and/or other athletes. If it is determined that the sexual relationship is inappropriate, action may be taken to stop the coaching relationship with the athlete. Action may include transfer, a request for resignation or dismissal from coaching duties.

In the event that an athlete attempts to initiate an intimate sexual relationship, the coach must take personal responsibility for discouraging such approaches, explaining the ethical basis for such action. The coach or athlete may wish to approach the MPIO or the relevant State Member Protection Information Officer if they feel harassed. The Complaints Procedure is outlined in Attachment D1 of this Policy.

5.5 Pregnancy

Everyone bound by this Policy must treat pregnant women with dignity and respect and any unreasonable barriers to participation by them in our sport should be removed. FFA will not tolerate any discrimination or harassment against pregnant women.

While many sporting activities are safe for pregnant women, there may be particular risks that apply to some women during pregnancy. Those risks will depend on the nature of the sporting activity and the particular pregnant woman's circumstances. Pregnant women should be aware that their own health and wellbeing, and that of their unborn children, should be of utmost importance in their decision making about the way they participate in football.

The Governing Bodies recommend that pregnant women wanting to participate in our sport consult with their medical advisers, make themselves aware of the facts about pregnancy in sport, and ensure that they make informed decisions about participation. FFA will only require pregnant women to sign a disclaimer if we require other participants to sign one in similar circumstances. FFA will not require women to undertake a pregnancy test.

5.6 Gender Identity

Everyone bound by this Policy must treat people who identify as Transgender fairly and with dignity and respect. This includes acting with sensitivity and respect where a person is undergoing gender transition. FFA will not tolerate any unlawful discrimination or harassment of a person who identifies as Transgender or Transsexual or who is thought to be transgender. Descriptions of the types of behaviour which could be regarded as Transgender discrimination or Harassment are provided in the Dictionary at section 9 of this Policy.

The Governing Bodies recognise that the exclusion of Transgender people from participation in sporting events and activities may have significant implications for their health, well-being and involvement in community life. In general FFA will facilitate Transgender persons participating in football with the gender with which they identify.

The Governing Bodies also recognise there is debate over whether a male or female Transgender person obtains any physical advantage over other female participants. This debate is reflected in the divergent discrimination laws across the country. If issues of performance advantage arise, the relevant Governing Body will seek advice on the application of those laws in the particular circumstances.

FFA is aware that the International Olympic Committee (IOC) has established criteria for selection and participation in the Olympic Games. Where a Transgender person intends competing at an elite level, we will encourage them to obtain advice about the IOC's criteria which may differ from the position taken by FFA.

Drug testing procedures and prohibitions also apply to people who identify as Transgender. A person receiving treatment involving a Prohibited Substance or Method, as described on the World Anti-Doping Agency's (WADA) Prohibited List, should apply for a standard Therapeutic Use Exemption.

5.7 Alcohol Policy

The Governing Bodies recommend that District Associations and their member Clubs adhere to strict guidelines regarding the responsible consumption of alcohol. Responsible service and consumption of alcohol should apply to any alcohol to be consumed during or after the competition has concluded. Responsible service of alcohol will entail:

- a) Making sure light alcohol and soft drinks are always available as alternatives to full strength alcohol;
- b) Wherever possible, food being available to be consumed when alcohol is available;
- c) Transport policies, and Board/Committee Members being in attendance to ensure appropriate practices are followed.

Guidance can be obtained from the "Alcohol Management Policy" available at <http://www.goodsports.com.au/goodsports/pages/sample-policies.html>

5.8 Smoking Policy

The following policies should be applied to all football-related events (including matches and social functions):

- a) No smoking shall occur at or near any sporting event or competition involving persons under the age of 18, and this Policy applies to all coaches, players, trainers, officials and volunteers;
- b) Social functions shall be smoke free, with smoking permitted at designated outdoor smoking areas;
- c) Coaches, officials, trainers, volunteers and players will refrain from smoking and remain smoke free while involved in an official capacity for any of the Governing Bodies, Club or representative team, on and off the field.

5.9 Cyber Bullying/Safety

Bullying and harassment in all forms is regarded by the Governing Bodies as unacceptable in this sport. Given the emergence of new telephone and internet social networks, the opportunity for unwanted and improper comments and statements has dramatically increased. Messages or statements made in these ways using these means of communication are largely instantaneous, and can easily be abused. Others may also manipulate a person by encouraging a statement to be made on Twitter, Facebook, My Space or LinkedIn, for example, when the writer may be upset or vulnerable. Bullying has the potential to cause great anxiety and distress to the person who has been the target of any comments or statements. In some cases, bullying is regarded as a criminal offence punishable by imprisonment, amongst other things. Frustration at a referee, team-mate, coach, or sporting body should never be communicated on social network channels, but rather by way of reasoned and logical verbal and written statements and where appropriate, complaints, to the relevant controlling Competition Administrator, Club, District Association or Member Federation.

5.10 Social Networking Websites Policy

The Governing Bodies acknowledge the emergence of new technology and communication mediums (Social Media), and wish to enable such Social Media to be used to benefit football and its participants, and to applaud achievements. However, participants within football need to be mindful of the possibility of Social Media being used inappropriately. Inappropriate use may occur unintentionally or when participants do not realise that their comments, once published are in a public forum, and are difficult to retract.

Social Media platforms include:

- a) social networking sites, including Facebook, MySpace, and LinkedIn;
- b) video and photo sharing websites, including Flickr and YouTube;
- c) micro-blogging sites, such as Twitter;
- d) weblogs, including personal blogs or blogs hosted by traditional media publications;
- e) forums and discussion boards, including those operated by Fox Sports, Four Four Two or The World Game;
- f) online encyclopaedias, such as Wikipedia; and
- g) any other web site that allow individual users or companies to use simple publishing tools.

Cautions the Governing Bodies recommend include:

- a) do not include personal information of yourself or others in Social Media channels;
- b) do not use offensive, provocative or hateful language in Social Media channels;
- c) use your best judgment – do not publish something that makes you the slightest bit uncomfortable, and never write/ publish if you are feeling emotional or upset (or are intoxicated);
- d) always ask for a person's permission before posting their picture on Social Media platform;
- e) never comment on rumours, do not deny or affirm them or speculate about rumours in Social Media channels; and
- f) always use Social Media/ network forums to add value and promote football in a positive way.

In addition to this Policy, FFA may from time to time issue Social Media policies and/ or guidelines that apply to specific individuals.

6. Complaints Procedures

6.1 Complaints

Any person may report a complaint about a Member bound by this Policy if they reasonably think that a Member has breached this Policy or has otherwise engaged in unethical or inappropriate conduct or behaviour.

FFA aims to provide a simple procedure for complaints based on the principles of procedural fairness (Natural Justice). Any person (Complainant) may report a complaint about a person/s or organisation bound by this Policy (Respondent). Such complaints should be reported to the MPIO or the relevant State Member Protection Information Officer.

The Complaints Procedure outlined at Part D of this Policy applies exclusively to the reporting, investigation and resolution of complaints reported under this Policy.

FFA and the Member Federations:

- a) must deal with any complaints about breaches of this Policy promptly, seriously, sensitively and confidentially and in accordance with the Complaints Procedure;
- b) must keep complaints confidential and will not disclose to another person without the complainant's consent, except if required by law or if disclosure is necessary to effectively deal with the complaint; and
- c) recognise that Natural Justice is the minimum standard of fairness to be applied in the investigation and adjudication of a complaint.

The lowest level at which a matter can be dealt with shall always be preferred. Therefore, if a complaint relates to behaviour or an incident that occurred at the:

- a) Club level or involves people operating at the club level, then the complaint should be reported to and handled by the relevant Club in the first instance;
- b) State level or involves people operating at the state level, then the complaint should be reported to and handled by the relevant Member Federation in the first instance; or
- c) National level, then the complaint should be reported to and handled by the FFA.

Only matters that relate to or occur at the national level and the most serious cases from state level should be referred to FFA.

A Complainant:

- a) must initially attempt to resolve the complaint with the person involved; and
- b) if this is not possible or reasonable given the sensitivity of the complaint, or that attempt does not provide a satisfactory outcome, the Complainant may notify the MPIO or the relevant State Member Protection Information Officer and make an informal or formal complaint.

FFA aims for our Complaints Procedure to have integrity and be free of unfair repercussions or victimisation. If at any point in the complaints process the MPIO, considers that a Complainant has knowingly made an untrue complaint or the complaint is vexatious or malicious, the matter may be referred to the Disciplinary Committee for appropriate action which may include disciplinary action against the Complainant.

FFA will take all necessary steps to make sure that people involved in a complaint are not victimised. Disciplinary measures can be imposed on anyone who harasses or victimises another person for making a complaint.

A complaint may be dealt with informally or formally, depending on whether an informal or formal complaint was lodged in accordance with this Policy (see attachments E1 and E2). The Complainant usually decides this unless the MPIO or relevant State Member Protection Information Officer considers that the complaint falls outside this Policy and would be better dealt with another way and/or the law requires the complaint/allegation to be reported to an appropriate authority.

Individuals and organisations may also pursue their complaint externally under anti-discrimination, child protection, criminal or other relevant legislation.

6.2 Improper Complaints & Victimisation

The Governing Bodies aim for the Complaints Procedure to have integrity and be free of unfair repercussions or victimisation against the person making the complaint. If at any point in the complaints process the MPIO or relevant State Member Protection Information Officer considers that a complainant has knowingly made an untrue complaint or the complaint is malicious or intended to cause distress to the person complained of, the matter may be referred to the relevant Governing Body for appropriate action which may include disciplinary action against the complainant.

The applicable Governing Body will take all necessary steps to make sure that people involved in a complaint are not victimised. Disciplinary measures can be imposed on anyone who harasses or victimises another person for making a complaint.

6.3 Mediation

The Governing Bodies should aim to resolve complaints with a minimum of fuss. Complaints may be resolved by agreement between the people involved with no need for disciplinary action. Mediation allows those involved to be heard and to come up with mutually agreed solutions.

Mediation may occur before or after the investigation of a complaint. If a complainant wishes to resolve the complaint with the help of a mediator, the MPIO or applicable State Member Protection Information Officer will, in consultation with the complainant, arrange for a neutral third party mediator where possible. Lawyers are not able to negotiate on behalf of the complainant and/or the respondent. More information on the mediation process is outlined at Part D2 of this Policy.

6.4 Tribunals – Hearings and Appeal

A Tribunal may be convened by FFA in its discretion to hear a formal complaint in the following circumstances:

- a) for an alleged breach of this Policy, as described in section 7 of this Policy; and
- b) when referred to it by:
 - i. the CEO or Chairman/President of the relevant Member Federation because of the serious nature of the event or the inability to resolve the matter at the Member Federation level;
 - ii. the FFA MPIO.

The FFA Tribunal Procedure is set out in the FFA Grievance Resolution Regulations (as defined).

A Tribunal may be convened by a Member Federation to hear a formal complaint:

- a) Referred to it by an Association because of the serious nature of the event or the inability to resolve the matter at the Association level;
- b) Referred to it by the State Member Protection Information Officer; and/or
- c) For an alleged breach of this Policy, as described in section 7.

The Member Federation Tribunal procedure can be obtained from the relevant Member Federation and information is supplied on the Member Federation's website.

A respondent may lodge an appeal only to the Appeal Tribunal in respect of a Tribunal decision in accordance with the Grievance Resolution Regulations. The decision of the Appeal Tribunal is final and binding.

Every organisation bound by this Policy will recognise and enforce any decision of a Tribunal or Appeal Tribunal under this Policy.

7. What is a Breach of this Policy

It is a breach of this Policy for any person or organisation to which this Policy applies, to do anything contrary to this Policy, including but not limited to:

Harassment is any type of behaviour that the other person does not want and that is offensive, abusive, belittling or threatening. The behaviour is unwelcome and a reasonable person would recognise it as being unwelcome and likely to cause the recipient to feel offended, humiliated or intimidated.

Unlawful harassment targets a person because of their race, sex, pregnancy, marital status, sexual orientation or some other personal characteristic protected by law (see characteristic list under discrimination). Unlawful harassment includes Sexual Harassment.

It does not matter whether the harassment was intended: the focus is on the impact of the behaviour. The basic rule is if someone else finds it harassing then it could be harassment. Harassment may be a single incident but is usually repeated. It may be explicit or implicit, verbal or non-verbal, and includes electronic cyber communication.

Discrimination and harassment are not permitted in employment (including volunteer and unpaid employment); when providing sporting goods and services including access to sporting facilities; when providing education and accommodation; the selection or otherwise of any person for competition or a team (domestic or international); the entry or otherwise of any player or other person to any competition and the obtaining or retaining membership of clubs and organisations (including the rights and privileges of membership).

Some exceptions to state and federal anti-discrimination law apply. Examples include:

- a) Holding a competitive sporting activity for boys and girls only who are under 12 years of age or of any age where strength, stamina or physique is relevant; or
- b) Not selecting a participant if the person's disability means he or she is not reasonably capable of performing the actions reasonably required for that particular sporting activity.

Requesting, assisting, instructing, inducing or encouraging another person to engage in discrimination or harassment may also be against the law.

It is also a breach of discrimination law to victimise a person who is involved in making a complaint of discrimination or harassment. Example: a player is ostracised by her male coach for complaining about his sexist behaviour or for supporting another player who has made such a complaint.

Public acts of racial hatred which are reasonably likely to offend, insult, humiliate or intimidate are also prohibited. This applies to spectators, participants or any other person who engages in such an act in public. Some states and territories also prohibit public acts that vilify on other grounds such as homosexuality, gender identity, HIV/AIDS, religion and disability – see definition of Vilification.

Sexual harassment is not behaviour based on mutual attraction, friendship and respect. If the interaction is between consenting adults, it is not sexual harassment.

PART C: SCREENING / WORKING WITH CHILDREN CHECK REQUIREMENTS

Background

Child protection is about keeping children safe from harm/abuse. Child abuse is illegal, and all states and territories have their own systems and laws that cover screening and/or the reporting and investigation of cases of child abuse.

Working with Children Check (WWCC) laws aim to prevent people who pose a risk from working with children as paid employees or volunteers. In New South Wales, Queensland, Western Australia, Victoria Northern Territory and South Australia, laws require individuals involved in areas such as sport and recreation to undertake a check to determine their suitability to work (in a paid or volunteer capacity) with children. This is done by checking certain criminal history and other matters. In some states this also involves reviewing relevant findings from disciplinary proceedings. There are also requirements placed on organisations.

The Australian Capital Territory and Tasmania are currently reviewing their screening laws. New requirements and amendments will be added to this Policy as they are introduced. There is no current screening process or formal legislation; however, individual employers or sporting organisations may require police checks at their discretion.

Please be aware that state and territory WWCC requirements may also apply to individuals who visit states with screening laws. For example, if a state association or club takes players under 18 into New South Wales for training camps, competition or other activities, those travelling with the teams must comply with NSW law.

The state WWCC requirements apply regardless of any provisions within this Policy.

The following attachments provide:

- a) Summary information on state and territory WWCC requirements and where to obtain more information and relevant forms;
- b) Our Member Protection Declaration (for all states/territories except NSW who must complete a Prohibited Employment Declaration provided by the NSW Commission for Children and Young People);
- c) Our screening requirements for people residing in ACT and Tasmania.

Please note: Working With Children Check exemptions

At the time of this Policy, it was proposed that there be national exemptions to Working with Children Checks for paid employees and volunteers who are required to cross state or territory borders for work related purposes.

It was proposed that these exemptions will be for up to 30 days in any 12 month period and will enable workers to participate in national and inter-jurisdictional activities on a short-term basis. This would mean that volunteers and workers with a valid WWCC in their home state or territory will be able to participate in short-term activities across state and territory borders without the need for additional checks.

Accordingly, FFA suggests that personnel who have a WWCC in their state or territory and who intend to participate in activities across state and territory borders, check whether these exemptions may apply to them.

Attachment C1: SCREENING REQUIREMENTS

Applicable for states/territories without Working With Children Checks (such as ACT and Tasmania)

This attachment sets out the screening process for people in FFA who work, coach, supervise or have regular unsupervised contact with people under the age of 18 years.

FFA will, and also requires state associations and clubs to:

1. Identify positions that involve working, coaching, supervising or regular unsupervised contact with people under the age of 18 years.
2. Obtain a completed Member Protection Declaration (MPD) (attachment C2) from all people who are identified in the above step and keep it in a secure place.
3. Provide an opportunity for a person to give an explanation if a MPD isn't provided or it reveals that the person doesn't satisfactorily meet any of the clauses in the MPD. We will then make an assessment as to whether the person may be unsuitable to work with people under the age of 18 years. If unsatisfied, we will not appoint them to the role/position.
4. Where possible, check a person's referees (verbal or written) about his/her suitability for the role.
5. Ask the people identified in step 1 to sign a consent form for a national police check.
6. Possibly request (or ask the person to request) a national 'Part Exclusion' police check from our relevant police jurisdiction. This check excludes irrelevant records. If the police check indicates a relevant offence, we will provide an opportunity for the person to give an explanation, and then we will make an assessment as to whether the person may pose a risk to or be unsuitable to work with people under the age of 18 years. If unsatisfied, we will not appoint them to the role/position.
7. Make an assessment as to whether the person may be unsuitable to work with people under the age of 18 years if the person does not agree to a national police check after explaining why it is a requirement under our Policy. If unsatisfied, we will not appoint them.
8. Decide whether to offer the person the position taking into account the result of the police check and any other information the club has available to it. Where it is not practical to complete the police check prior to the person commencing in the position, we will complete the check as soon as possible, and if necessary, act immediately on the outcome.
9. Protect the privacy of any person who is checked and maintain confidentiality of any information obtained through the checking process.
10. Return information collected during screening (such as a completed MPD form, police records and referee reports) to the relevant person if that person is not appointed to the position, or otherwise be destroyed within 28 days of the date of the decision or the expiry of any appeal period, unless within that time the person requests that the documents be returned to them. For appointed persons, information will be kept on file in a secure location.

Attachment C2: MEMBER PROTECTION DECLARATION

FFA has a duty of care to all those associated with the sport and to the individuals and organisations to whom our Member Protection Policy applies. Attachment C3: WORKING WITH CHILDREN CHILD PROTECTION REQUIREMENTS

The following information was updated in September 2012. It is subject to change at any time.

1. QUEENSLAND

A person will need a Working with Children Check (WWCC), also known as the blue card, if they propose to work in a paid or voluntary capacity or to carry on a business in a child-related area regulated by the Commission for Children and Young People and Child Guardian Act 2000. Once a person is checked and approved they are issued with a “blue card.” Volunteers and paid employees employed in sporting organisations generally fall under the ‘churches, clubs and associations’ category of regulated employment. Volunteers and paid employees employed in private businesses may fall under the ‘sport and active recreation’ category of regulated employment. The check is a detailed national criminal history check including charges and investigations relating to children.

People such as those with previous convictions involving children are disqualified from applying for or renewing a blue card (refer to website below for details).

A blue card remains current for three years. Existing card holders will be notified by the Queensland Commission for Children and Young People and Child Guardian before their card expires.

In addition to obligations regarding the blue card, employers must develop and implement a written child protection risk management strategy and review it each year.

For more information on the blue card, including current forms, visit www.ccyppg.qld.gov.au or call 1800 113 611.

2. NEW SOUTH WALES

All organisations within NSW that employ people in child-related employment (in a paid or volunteer capacity) must meet the requirements of the Working with Children Check (WWCC). Child related employment is work which primarily involves direct unsupervised contact with children. The WWCC involves the following:

- Ensuring all paid employees in a child-related position sign an Applicant Declaration and Consent Form which declares they are not prohibited from working with children.
- Submitting all applicants for paid employment to NSW Commission for Children and Young People for a Working With Children Background Check.
- All volunteers and students on placement whose work is categorised as 'child-related employment' must sign a Volunteer/Student Declaration; except those volunteers who mentor disadvantaged children in family-like relationships, or provide intimate personal care (e.g. bathing or toileting) for disabled children. These volunteers require a Working With Children Background Check. (see 1. and 2. above)
- Reporting relevant employment proceedings for any paid and unpaid employees to the Commission for Children and Young People. A relevant employment proceeding involves any reportable conduct committed outside of work as well as in the workplace with or in the presence of a children.

Sporting organisations are responsible for managing the WWCC process. Individuals cannot apply for a WWCC directly. Sporting organisations should register with the NSW Commission for Children and Young People providing a contact who will receive the information on the background checks.

A WWCC is valid for employment in that position within the organisation. Short-term employees (where that person is being employed for periods of less than six months and returning for short periods throughout a 12 month period) only need to be checked once every 12 months.

From late 2012 or early 2013, a new Working With Children Check will be introduced in NSW. Every person starting a new paid position or setting themselves up as a self-employed person must have a new WWCC clearance. People continuing in their existing employment will not need a new WWCC until their sector is phased in. Volunteers will be phased in over a five-year period following implementation of the new WWCC.

Workers and volunteers undertaking child-related work will need to apply for a new WWCC unless they are exempt (see the website below for details on persons who are exempt). The new process for getting a WWCC involves:

- Worker or volunteer fills in an online form;
- Takes the application number to a motor registry, or government access centre, pays the fee (if applicable) and has their identity confirmed; and
- The applicant's full criminal history and employer disciplinary findings are obtained and assessed.

Once these steps have been followed, the applicant will be issued with either a clearance to work with children, an interim bar pending an assessment to determine whether the applicant presents a serious risk to children, or an automatic bar preventing the applicant from working with children.

Other changes under the new check require employers to verify child-related workers' or volunteers' clearance numbers before employing them. Also, the same WWCC will apply to everyone regardless of the nature of their work with children (i.e. paid workers, self-employed or volunteers) and everyone with a clearance will be continuously monitored for serious child-related offences.

For more information, including the required forms, visit <https://check.kids.nsw.gov.au/index.php> or contact 02 9286 7219 during business hours.

3. WESTERN AUSTRALIA

The Working with Children Check (WWCC) is a compulsory and rigorous criminal record check for certain people who carry out 'child-related work' in WA. A person is in 'child-related work' if the usual duties of their work involves, or is likely to involve, contact with a child in connection with specified categories of work (see the website below for further details). It includes child-related work carried out by paid employees, volunteers, unpaid people and the self-employed. Parents volunteering in connection with their child's activity are exempt (although this does not apply to overnight camps); however they should still be required to complete the non-WWC Check screening process. There are other exemptions, for example volunteers under 18 years old. Further details about exemptions can be found on the website below.

Applicants will be issued with either:

- An Assessment Notice in the form of a WWC Card enabling them to be in all types of child-related work for three years unless there are new offences of concern.
- An Interim Negative Notice, which prohibits them from child-related work until a final decision is made on their application.
- A Negative Notice, which prohibits them from child-related work.

There are set obligations and strong penalties for non-compliance including for employers and volunteer co-coordinators. loss

For more information visit www.checkwwc.wa.gov.au or call 1800 883 979 (toll free).

4. VICTORIA

The Working with Children Check (WWCC) creates a mandatory minimum checking standard across Victoria. The Working with Children Act 2005 requires that some people who work or volunteer in child-related work require a WWCC. The check involves a national police records check and a review of relevant findings from prescribed professional disciplinary bodies (currently only the Victorian Institute of Teaching). There is an exemption for volunteers whose own children are involved in the particular activity; however they should still be required to complete the screening process.

A person who has no criminal or professional disciplinary history will be granted an assessment notice. This notice will entitle the person to undertake child-related work in Victoria and is valid for five years (unless revoked). A person deemed unsuitable to work or volunteer with children will be given a negative notice and cannot work in child-related work in Victoria.

For more information visit www.justice.vic.gov.au/workingwithchildren or call 1300 652 879.

5. SOUTH AUSTRALIA

There are provisions under the Children's Protection (Miscellaneous) Amendment Act 2005 that apply to non-government and volunteer organisations that are entrusted with the care of children or who regularly come into contact with children. Part of the Government regulations is the 'Seven Principles of Good Practice' which clubs and organisations are expected to adopt as proactive and preventative strategies. These principles are to help prevent and minimise opportunities for abuse and to appropriately respond when abuse occurs or is suspected. The principles can be assessed at the following link:

http://www.recsport.sa.gov.au/training-development/documents/Keep_Children_Safe_Guidelines.pdf

Criminal history assessments (checks) are mandatory for persons working in sporting organisations from 2010/2011 unless an exemption applies. There are three ways an organisation can ensure that a criminal history assessment is conducted for people working with children:

- Obtain a criminal history assessment and letter of clearance from the Department for Families and Communities (DFC) Screening Unit;
- Obtain a criminal history report and conduct the assessment yourself (as the organisation);
- Accept other evidence and conduct the assessment yourself (as the organisation). Examples of other evidence that may be accepted to assess a person's suitability to work with children include: a National Police Certificate, a letter of clearance from the DFC Screening Unit or a current interstate Working With Children Check.

Staff and volunteers who work with children are mandated notifiers and have a legal obligation to report any suspected child abuse and/or neglect.

For more information <http://www.dfc.sa.gov.au/pub/Default.aspx?tabid=281> or call 8124 4185.

6. NORTHERN TERRITORY

From 1 July 2011, all persons employed in child-related work, either paid or as a volunteer, must hold a valid clearance notice issued by the SAFE NT Screening Authority. There are penalties for failure to comply. Sports coaches, trainers, team administrators, officials and volunteers of Sporting Organisations that deal with children are included under the legislative requirements.

Clearance notices are valid for two years from date of issue unless revoked, and are transferable within employment fields. As a part of the assessment process, SAFE NT will consider the applicant's criminal history record, employment history and other relevant information. Persons deemed to pose an unacceptable risk to children by the Screening Authority will not be granted a clearance notice.

For more information visit <http://www.workingwithchildren.nt.gov.au> or call 1800 SAFE NT (1800 723 368).

PART D: COMPLAINT HANDLING PROCEDURES

Attachment D1: COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

All complaints will be kept confidential and will not be disclosed to another person without the complainant's consent except if law requires disclosure or if disclosure is necessary to effectively deal with the complaint.

Depending on the nature of the complaint, individuals and organisations may also pursue their complaint externally under anti-discrimination, child protection or other relevant legislation.

If you wish to remain anonymous, FFA may have difficulty assisting you to resolve your complaint. Procedural Fairness (Natural Justice) means that FFA is required to provide the person/people you have complained about with full details of the complaint so they have an opportunity to be heard and/ or to respond.

INFORMAL COMPLAINTS

Step 1: Talk with the other person (where this is reasonable, safe and appropriate)

In the first instance, you (Complainant) should try to sort out the problem with the person or people involved (Respondent) if you feel able to do so.

Step 2: Contact a Member Protection Information Officer

Talk with the MPIO or relevant State MPIO if:

- The first step is not possible/reasonable;
- You are not sure how to handle the problem by yourself;
- You want to talk confidentially about the problem with someone and obtain more information about what you can do; or
- The problem continues after you tried to approach the person or people involved.

The contact information for the State Member Protection Information Officers can be found on the websites of the relevant Member Federations. The MPIO can be contacted by emailing mpio@footballaustralia.com.au.

The MPIO or relevant State Member Protection Information Officer will:

- Take confidential notes about your complaint;
- Try to find out the facts of the problem;
- Ask what outcome/how you want the problem resolved and if you need support;
- Provide possible options for you to resolve the problem;
- Explain how the Complaints Procedure works;
- Act as a support person if you so wish;
- Refer the complainant back to attempt to resolve the complaint directly with the other person involved, if necessary;
- Keep a written record in Attachment E1 (Record of Informal Complaint);
- Refer you to an appropriate person (e.g. Mediator) to help you resolve the problem, if necessary;
- Inform the relevant government authorities and/or police if required by law to do so;
- Maintain confidentiality.

Step 3: Outcomes from initial contact

After talking with the MPIO or relevant State Member Protection Information Officer, you may decide:

- There is no problem;
- The problem is minor and you do not wish to take the matter forward;
- To try and work out your own resolution (with or without a support person such as the MPIO or relevant State Member Protection Information Officer);
- To seek a mediated resolution with the help of a third person (such as a mediator); or

- To make a formal complaint to the MPIO on a completed and signed Attachment E2 (Record of Formal Complaint).

FORMAL COMPLAINTS

Step 4: Making a Formal complaint

If your informal complaint is not resolved or informal approaches have not resolved the complaint to the complainant's satisfaction or are not appropriate or possible, you may:

- Make a formal complaint in writing to the MPIO or relevant State Member Protection Information Officer; or
- Approach a relevant external agency such as an anti-discrimination commission, for advice.

On receiving a formal complaint and based on the material you have provided, the MPIO or relevant State Member Protection Information Officer will decide whether:

- They are the most appropriate person to receive and handle the complaint;
- The nature and seriousness of the complaint warrants a formal resolution procedure;
- To refer the complaint to mediation;
- To appoint a person to investigate (gather more information on) the complaint;
- To refer the complaint to a hearings tribunal;
- To refer the matter to the police or other appropriate authority; and/or
- To implement any interim arrangements that will apply until the complaint process set out in these Procedures is completed.

In making the decision(s) outlined above, the MPIO or relevant State Member Protection Information Officer will take into account:

- Whether they have had any personal involvement in the circumstances which means that someone else should handle the complaint;
- Your wishes, and the wishes of the respondent, regarding the manner in which the complaint should be handled;
- The relationship between you and the respondent (for example an actual or perceived power imbalance between you and the respondent);
- Whether the facts of the complaint are in dispute; and
- The urgency of the complaint, including the possibility that you will be subject to further unacceptable behaviour while the complaint process is underway.

If the MPIO or relevant State Member Protection Information Officer is the appropriate person to handle the complaint they will, to the extent that these steps are necessary:

- Put the information they've received from you to the person/people you're complaining about and ask them to provide their side of the story;
- Decide if they have enough information to determine whether the matter alleged in your complaint did or didn't happen; and/or
- Determine what, if any, further action to take. This action may include referring the matter to a Tribunal from which disciplinary action may result in accordance with this Policy.

In the event that the matter is to be dealt with by FFA and further investigation is required, FFA will appoint its general counsel, other senior manager or, if it considers it appropriate in the circumstances, an independent expert (Investigator) to investigate the complaint.

In the event that the matter is to be dealt with by the Member Federation and further investigation is required, the CEO of that Member Federation will appoint an appropriate person, whether a Member Federation employee or otherwise, (Investigator) to investigate the complaint.

Step 5: Investigation of the complaint

In accordance with Attachment D3 of this Policy, on completion of his or her investigation, the Investigator appointed under Step 4 above must provide written report to the MPIO or relevant State Member Protection Information Officer for a determination by FFA or the relevant Member Federation as to what further action should be taken.

If the complaint is referred to:

- a) mediation, it will be conducted in accordance with Part D2 or as otherwise agreed by you and the respondent and the mediation provider;
- b) a hearings Tribunal, the hearing will be conducted in accordance with the Grievance Resolution Regulations; or
- c) the police or other appropriate authority, FFA will use its best endeavours to provide all reasonable assistance required by the police or other authority.

It must be made clear to all parties that the Investigator is not seeking to resolve the matter, or to decide whether any breach of this Policy has occurred, or to impose any penalty. Any decision about Policy breach must be referred to an independent Tribunal, and wherever possible, mediations should be conducted by an independent mediator.

Any costs relating to the complaint process set out in this Policy (e.g. investigation and/or mediation and/or hearings tribunal) are to be met by the relevant Governing Body unless otherwise stated.

Step 6: Documenting the resolution

The MPIO or relevant State Member Protection Information Officer will document the complaint, the process and the outcome. This document will be stored in a confidential and secure place. If the complaint was dealt with at a Member Federation level, the information will be stored in the state association office. If the matter is of a serious nature, or if the matter was escalated to and/or dealt with at the FFA level, the documents will be stored at the FFA office with a copy stored at the relevant Member Federation office.

EXTERNAL APPROACHES or COMPLAINTS

There are a range of other options available depending on the nature of your complaint. If you feel that you have been harassed or discriminated against, you can seek advice from your state or territory anti-discrimination commission without being obliged to make a formal complaint. If the commission advises you that the problem appears to be harassment within its jurisdiction, you may lodge a formal complaint with the commission.

Once a complaint is received by an anti-discrimination commission, it will investigate. If it appears that unlawful harassment or discrimination has occurred, the commission will conciliate the complaint confidentially. If this fails, or is inappropriate, the complaint may go to a formal hearing where a finding will be made. The Tribunal will decide upon what action, if any, will be taken. This could include financial compensation for such things as distress, lost earnings or medical and counselling expenses incurred.

If you do lodge a complaint under anti-discrimination law, you may use an appropriate person as a support person throughout the process. It is also common to have a legal representative, particularly at the hearing stage of a complaint.

You could also approach another external agency such as the police.

Attachment D2: MEDIATION

Mediation is a process during which people in conflict are helped to communicate with each other to identify the areas of dispute and to make decisions about resolving it. This attachment outlines the general procedure of mediation that will be followed by the relevant Governing Body.

1. If mediation is chosen, the MPIO or relevant State Member Protection Officer will, in consultation with the Complainant and the Respondent(s), arrange for a mediator.
2. The mediator's role is to assist the Complainant and Respondent(s) reach an agreement on how to resolve the problem. The mediator, in consultation with the Complainant and Respondent(s), will choose the procedures to be followed during the mediation. At a minimum, an agenda of issues for discussion will be prepared by the mediator.
3. The mediation will be conducted confidentially and without prejudice to the rights of the Complainant and the Respondent(s) to pursue an alternative process if the complaint is not resolved.
4. At the end of a successful mediation the mediator will prepare a document that sets out the agreement reached which will be signed by them as their agreement.
5. If the complaint is not resolved by mediation, the Complainant may:
 - a) Write to the MPIO or relevant State Member Protection Officer to make a formal complaint in accordance with Step 4; or
 - b) Approach an external agency such as an anti-discrimination commission.
6. Mediation will not be recommended if:
 - a) The Respondent has a completely different version of the events and will not deviate from these;
 - b) The Complainant or Respondent are unwilling to attempt mediation;
 - c) Due to the nature of the complaint, the relationship between the Complainant and the Respondent(s) or any other relevant factors, the complaint is not suitable for mediation; or
 - d) The matter involves proven serious allegations, regardless of the wishes of the Complainant.

Attachment D3: INVESTIGATION PROCESS

If an investigation needs to be conducted to gather more information the following steps will be followed:

1. The relevant Governing Body will provide a written brief to the investigator clarifying terms of engagement and roles and responsibilities. The Investigator will:
 - a) Interview the Complainant and record the interview in writing.
 - b) Convey full details of the complaint to the Respondent(s) so that they can respond.
 - c) Interview the Respondent to allow them to answer the complaint, and record the interview in writing.
 - d) Obtain statements from witnesses and other relevant evidence to assist in a determination, if there is a dispute over the facts
 - e) deliver a report to the relevant Governing Body as to whether in their view the complaint is:
 - Substantiated (there is sufficient evidence to support the complaint);
 - Inconclusive (there is insufficient evidence either way);
 - Unsubstantiated (there is sufficient evidence to show that the complaint is unfounded); and/or
 - Mischievous, vexatious or knowingly untrue; and
 - if requested, recommend whether the matter should be referred to a Tribunal for determination as to whether there has been a breach of this Policy and any appropriate sanctions.
2. We will provide a report to the Complainant and the Respondent(s) documenting the complaint, the investigation process and summarising key points concerning the investigation.
3. The Complainant and the Respondent(s) will be entitled to support throughout this process from their chosen support person/adviser (e.g. MPIO or other person).

Attachment D4: PROCEDURE FOR HANDLING ALLEGATIONS OF CHILD ABUSE

An allegation of child abuse is a very serious matter and must be handled with a high degree of sensitivity. It is not the responsibility of anyone working in FFA in a paid or unpaid capacity to decide whether or not child abuse has taken place. However, there is a responsibility to act on any concerns by reporting these to the appropriate authorities. The following outlines the key steps to follow. More information can be obtained from state or territory government agencies.

Step 1 – Initial Receipt of an Allegation

If a child or young person discloses an allegation involving harm or abuse to them or another child, then it is crucial that you:

- Stay calm;
- Listen, be supportive and do not challenge or undermine what the child says;
- Reassure the child that what has occurred is not the fault of the child;
- Be honest with the child and explain that other people may need to be told in order to stop what is happening;
- Ensure you are clear about what the child has said but do not elicit detailed information, ask leading questions or offer an opinion;
- Act promptly to accurately record the discussion in writing;
- Do not discuss the details with any person other than those detailed in these procedures; and
- Do not contact the alleged offender.

Step 2 – Report allegations

- Immediately report any allegation or disclosure of child abuse or situation involving a child at risk of harm, to the police and/or government child protection agency. You may need to report to both.
- Contact the relevant child protection agency or police for advice if there is any doubt about whether the complaint should be reported (for example, the allegation may relate to poor/inappropriate practice).
- If the child's parent/s is suspected of committing the abuse, you should report the allegation to the relevant government agency.
- If the allegation involves anyone to whom our Policy applies, then also report the allegation to the MPIO or relevant State Member Protection Officer so that they can manage the situation (e.g. contact the parents following advice from the authorities, deal with any media enquiries and manage steps 3 and 4).

Step 3 – Protect the child and manage the situation

- The MPIO or relevant State Member Protection Officer will assess the risks and take interim action to ensure the child's/children's safety. Action the relevant Governing Body may implement includes redeployment of the alleged offender to a non-child related position, supervision of the alleged offender or removal/suspension from their duties until the allegations are finally determined, however it is not the MPIO's role to undertake such actions. The relevant Governing Body should seek legal advice if person is in a paid employment.
- The MPIO or relevant State Member Protection Officer will consider the kind of support that the children and parents may need (e.g. counselling, help lines, support groups).
- The MPIO or relevant State Member Protection Officer will address the support needs of the alleged offender.
- The MPIO or relevant State Member Protection Officer will also put in place measures to protect the child and the person against whom the complaint is made from victimisation and gossip. If the person is stood down, it should be made clear to any persons aware of the incident that this does not mean the respondent is guilty and a proper investigation will be undertaken.

Step 4 – Internal action

- Where there is an allegation made against a person to whom this Policy applies, there may be three types of investigations:
 - Criminal (conducted by police);
 - Child protection (conducted by child protection authority);
 - Disciplinary or misconduct (conducted by the relevant Governing Body).
- Irrespective of the findings of the child protection and/or police inquiries, the relevant Governing Body will assess the allegation to decide whether the person should be reinstated, banned, have their employment or position terminated or any other action having regard for all the information, including the findings of the police, government agency and/or court.
- If disciplinary action is to be taken, the procedures outlined in Clause 8 of the Policy will be followed.
- If disciplinary action is taken, FFA will advise and provide a report to the relevant government authority should this be required (e.g. the NSW Commission for Children and Young People requires notification of relevant employment proceedings).

PART E: REPORTING REQUIREMENT AND DOCUMENTS

The following information was updated in September 2012. It is subject to change at any time.

1. QUEENSLAND

If you have a reason to suspect a child in Queensland is experiencing harm, or is at risk of experiencing harm, you need to contact Child Safety Services:

- During normal business hours - contact the Regional Intake Service.
- After hours and on weekends - contact the Child Safety After Hours Service Centre on 1800 177 135 or (07) 3235 9999. The service operates 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

If you believe a child is in immediate danger or in a life-threatening situation, contact the Queensland Police Service immediately by dialing 000.

Queensland Police Service has a number of child protection and investigation units across Queensland. To contact the Queensland Police Service, contact the Police District Communication Centre nearest you.

If you aren't sure who to call, or for assistance to locate your nearest child safety service centre, contact Child Safety Services' Enquiries Unit on 1800 811 810. Child safety service centres have professionally trained child protection staff who are skilled in dealing with information about harm or risk of harm to children.

2. NEW SOUTH WALES

Anyone who suspects, on reasonable grounds, that a child or young person is at risk of being neglected or physically, sexually or emotionally abused, should report it to Community Services.

Reasonable grounds is the standard that reporters must use in deciding whether or not to report to Community Services.

It does not mean that reporters are required to confirm their suspicions or provide solid proof before making a report. A useful rule of thumb is to consider whether another person, when faced with similar information, would also draw the same conclusion.

You can make a report by phoning the Child Protection Helpline on 132 111 (TTY 1800 212 936) for the cost of a local call, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

3. WESTERN AUSTRALIA

If you are concerned about a child's wellbeing, contact the Department for Child Protection's district office closest to where the child lives or the Crisis Care Unit after hours.

If you believe a child is in immediate danger or in a life-threatening situation, contact the Western Australia Police immediately by dialing 000.

If you make a report or disclose relevant information to the Department for Child Protection, there is legislative protection for the notifier. These are:

- Protection of identity - with some exceptions, your identity must not be disclosed without your consent. For further information, refer to section 240 of the Children and Community Services Act 2004.
- Legal protection – you are not subject to legal liability under state law providing the information is provided in good faith.
- Professional protection – authorised disclosure of information cannot be held to constitute unprofessional conduct or a breach of professional ethics. As a result you cannot be disciplined by your professional body or incur any formal professional negative consequences at your workplace.

When you contact the Department, the Duty Officer will gather and record information that you provide and decide how best to respond. The type of information that the officer will gather includes:

- Details about the child/young person and family;
- The reasons you are concerned;
- The immediate risk to the child;
- Whether or not the child or family has support;
- What may need to happen to make the child safe;
- Your contact details, so that the officer can call you to obtain further information if required or to provide feedback.

You do not need to have all the details about the child or family when you contact the Department for Child Protection.

For more information: visit <http://www.dcp.wa.gov.au/ChildProtection/> or call 1800 622 258.

4. VICTORIA

Some professionals such as doctors, nurses, police and school teachers are legally obliged to report suspected child abuse. In addition, any person who believes on reasonable grounds that a child needs protection can make a report to the Victorian Child Protection Service. It is the Child Protection worker's job to assess and, where necessary, further investigate if a child or young person is at risk of harm. For more information: visit <http://www.dhs.vic.gov.au/> or call 131 278 toll free (24 hours a day, 7 days a week).

For concerns that are life threatening, call Victoria Police on 000.

5. SOUTH AUSTRALIA

Staff and volunteers who work with children are mandated notifiers and have a legal obligation to report any suspicion of child abuse and/or neglect that they may form in the course of their employment or volunteer activity based on reasonable grounds. This obligation extends to persons holding a management position whose duties include direct responsibility for, or direct supervision of the provision of services to children.

Reports are made to the CHILD ABUSE HELP LINE 13 14 78

A reasonable suspicion must be based on facts, for example:

- A disclosure of abuse by a child;
- Professional judgement, based on the notifier's experience and observations.

The organisation has an obligation to make each affected person aware of this legal obligation.

There is no obligation that recreation or sporting organisations require mandated reporters to undertake formal external training in the recognition of child abuse.

The law also stipulates that no person shall threaten or intimidate, or cause damage, loss or disadvantage to another person because that person has made a notification or proposes to make a notification pursuant to the Children's Protection Act 1993.

6. NORTHERN TERRITORY

In the Northern Territory any person who believes that a child is being, or has been, abused or neglected is required by law to report their concerns.

Reports should be made to the 24 hour Centralised Intake Service by using the free-call phone number 1800 700 250.

Remember, you do not need to prove abuse or neglect, you need only report your concerns. The Care and Protection of Children Act provides legal protection against civil or criminal liability for people who make reports in good faith.

The Act also makes it clear that making a report does not breach any requirements of confidentiality or professional ethics.

- DHHS employees;
- Child Care providers;
- Dentists, dental therapists or dental hygienists;
- Police officers and probation officers;
- Psychologists;
- Registered medical practitioners and nurses;
- School principals and teachers;
